This was a very difficult interview.
Luf. was quite pleasant & gave me tea & sandwiches & interviewed her until her husband returned.

Neither is Irish - she is Welsh & he English & both really were quite unpleasant about - The Irish

Roman Catholics

'long haired Nellies' at University &
'People who wanted to know their business'

Luf. then brought in his young assistant to ask him if he was discriminated against by the family.

(then thanked them for their courtesy & said it was a pity that the quest. would have to be scrapped because I had no details re earnings etc. He did look rather embarrassed then, & recalled me to give some figures which he said were not to go to the Tax people - I hope these will be enough to go on as no more will be forthcoming.
