Income tax kills all incentive.
 Don't think people should be allowed to do 2 jobs - share them out. And family allowance should be done away with and put in the old age pension.

QUESTION 23 Poor now

Stress genuinely and try to avoid facetiousness at this point. Question 23 (a) explores what the informant understands by feeling "poor". If the word "poor" seems inappropriate use the alternative "very hard up".

QUESTION 24 Poverty

Stress the word "poverty". Do not explain what you think it means if you are asked. Seek from the informant his definition and write it in the box as clearly as you can.

QUESTION 25 Voting

Ask for those old enough to have voted in the last election (March 1965). We are not concerned who they voted for (although they will probably say) but would like to know if they are sufficiently involved to vote at all. Be careful to reassure people that this is confidential and as far as you are concerned non-voting is blameless—many people consider that voting is legally compulsory or morally obligatory and so voting figures are over-estimated. Try to get a clear recollection by fixing the incident (time of day, who they went with) if necessary. Stress National, not local elections.

QUESTION 26 Action on poverty

We are interested in what the informant thinks can be done. Give as full an answer as possible.

Please write in any additional notes.

General.

This man was a rather depressing character, a living monument to 'the ones whom life passes by'. He was very lonely, had to do housework or cook for himself as he regarded this as exclusively women's work. He had had a housekeeper some yrs ago, who lived there with her son. She left 2 yrs ago after he turned down her proposal of marriage, which it seems he has since regretted. He has had a series of housekeepers since, ~~but~~ but all none 'the wrong type and didn't want to bother about the place'. Still looking for one, and suggests that he could provide a good home for an unmarried mother and her child.

General impression of his financial fortunes declining, although this seems a lesser problem compared to his loneliness.

I think people are better off generally but only because wives work. It's hard on O.A.P.s that can't earn what they like without being taxed.
