QUESTION 23 Poor now

Stress genuinely and try to avoid facetiousness at this point. Question 23 (a) explores what the informant understands by feeling "poor". If the word "poor" seems inappropriate use the alternative "very hard up".

QUESTION 24 Poverty

Stress the word "poverty". Do not explain what you think it means if you are asked. Seek from the informant his definition and write it in the box as clearly as you can.

QUESTION 25 Voting

Ask for those old enough to have voted in the last election (March 1965). We are not concerned who they voted for (although they will probably say) but would like to know if they are sufficiently involved to vote at all. Be careful to reassure people that this is confidential and as far as you are concerned non-voting is blameless—many people consider that voting is legally compulsory or morally obligatory and so voting figures are over-estimated. Try to get a clear recollection by fixing the incident (time of day, who they went with) if necessary. Stress National, not local elections.

QUESTION 26 Action on poverty

We are interested in what the informant thinks can be done. Give as full an answer as possible.

Please write in any additional notes.

Some people in this village, living in huts in the woods (what our doctor keeps calling "problem families") were given new council houses. In a few months, they were as scruffy as the old huts, they kept their coal in the bath, ripped out all the fittings, and stay home on "assistance". They say it pays them not to go to work. Why don't the Government <sup>say a man must be</sup> ~~give~~ a job at say £10 a week and the Government make it up to 17, not give him 17 for staying at home and doing nothing but have more kids.
