Missing - announced on T.V. & he said "I saw her last night - I must have been the last person to see her" They told him he must go to Police - eventually the Police come to the house - in fact the missing children were found but she thinks there's "some funny business".

QUESTION 23 Poor now

Stress genuinely and try to avoid facetiousness at this point. Question 23 (a) explores what the informant understands by feeling "poor". If the word "poor" seems inappropriate use the alternative "very hard up".

QUESTION 24 Poverty

Stress the word "poverty". Do not explain what you think it means if you are asked. Seek from the informant his definition and write it in the box as clearly as you can.

QUESTION 25 Voting

Ask for those old enough to have voted in the last election (March 1965). We are not concerned who they voted for (although they will probably say) but would like to know if they are sufficiently involved to vote at all. Be careful to reassure people that this is confidential and as far as you are concerned non-voting is blameless—many people consider that voting is legally compulsory or morally obligatory and so voting figures are over-estimated. Try to get a clear recollection by fixing the incident (time of day, who they went with) if necessary. Stress National, not local elections.

QUESTION 26 Action on poverty

We are interested in what the informant thinks can be done. Give as full an answer as possible.

Please write in any additional notes.

When I called last night L^t had gone straight out from work because he didn't want to see me - so arranged with me to call on Sat so he got in from work but she didn't tell him I was calling again.

L^t doesn't tell them anything about his work - they don't even know where he works other than it is out of Gloucester - he only gives £3 p.w. which isn't really enough.

understand the amount he earns. INFT didn't know how much he earned however listened anxiously while he spoke to me.

L^t was away. I left the 4 x 5 forms for him to complete & forward.

Rather an odd situation. Mother of 2nd took L^t from an orphanage (or similar institution) when he was quite young & brought him up as a son. She died a couple of years ago & they all stayed in the same house (it was hers) including L^t. However there was some dispute & the landlord wanted them to get out but has been sorted out now (9.1.69) & they can stay but she did think that if they had changed houses L^t would have had to go although she wouldn't like to put him on the streets. He seems a bit backward & she worries about him because he plays with 11 & 12 yr old children - she reckons his not a man. About a year ³⁹ ago there were two little girls
