QUESTION 23 Poor now

Stress genuinely and try to avoid facetiousness at this point. Question 23 (a) explores what the informant understands by feeling "poor". If the word "poor" seems inappropriate use the alternative "very hard up".

QUESTION 24 Poverty

Stress the word "poverty". Do not explain what you think it means if you are asked. Seek from the informant his definition and write it in the box as clearly as you can.

QUESTION 25 Voting

Ask for those old enough to have voted in the last election (March 1965). We are not concerned who they voted for (although they will probably say) but would like to know if they are sufficiently involved to vote at all. Be careful to reassure people that this is confidential and as far as you are concerned non-voting is blameless—many people consider that voting is legally compulsory or morally obligatory and so voting figures are over-estimated. Try to get a clear recollection by fixing the incident (time of day, who they went with) if necessary. Stress National, not local elections.

QUESTION 26 Action on poverty

We are interested in what the informant thinks can be done. Give as full an answer as possible.

Please write in any additional notes.

Although not coded handicapped, this old lady has a lot of illnesses - diabetes, arthritis, Stomach hernia. - but still manages house - keeps active. Although she was without heat on a very cold morning, says she cannot get supplementary benefit as she owns both own, next door house. This is occupied by daughter, who pays £1 a week rent, - mother pays rates. V. proud of six grandchildren - all have been to University - one at present at Oxford! and four great grandchildren.

Although in a poor area, poor terraced house, - I think £1000 is a realistic estimate as to value - nothing goes for any less than this in the Midlands
