QUESTION 23 Poor now

Stress genuinely and try to avoid facetiousness at this point. Question 23 (a) explores what the informant understands by feeling "poor". If the word "poor" seems inappropriate use the alternative "very hard up".

QUESTION 24 Poverty

Stress the word "poverty". Do not explain what you think it means if you are asked. Seek from the informant his definition and write it in the box as clearly as you can.

QUESTION 25 Voting

Ask for those old enough to have voted in the last election (March 1965). We are not concerned who they voted for (although they will probably say) but would like to know if they are sufficiently involved to vote at all. Be careful to reassure people that this is confidential and as far as you are concerned non-voting is blameless—many people consider that voting is legally compulsory or morally obligatory and so voting figures are over-estimated. Try to get a clear recollection by fixing the incident (time of day, who they went with) if necessary. Stress National, not local elections.

QUESTION 26 Action on poverty

We are interested in what the informant thinks can be done. Give as full an answer as possible.

Please write in any additional notes.

This family is living in very poor council flat with living/kitchen combined. All furnishings very poor, but both adults verbal, well spoken. Son at Comprehensive intending to stay on. I felt they must be concealing something in their circumstances, but couldn't get it! Wife vocal on poverty - family allowances should be given to first child (she has only one) but not to neighbours with ten who according to her live without working. Very bitter about fall in stakes - made much about Father's position with Cranley Hunt (?).

(b) What would you describe as poverty?

WRITE IN ANSWER

I suppose people living in slums but some of them have more money than me. You can't really tell who's poor.

(c) Would you say that if people are in poverty its mainly

X - their own fault?
Y - the Government's fault?
0 - the fault of their education?
1 - the fault of industry not providing the right jobs?
2 - anything else? (SPECIFY)
3 - a combination of (some of) these?
4 - none of these?

WRITE IN ANSWER

It wants looking into, but there's too much intrusion nowadays. I suppose the Social Services can help, but they always goes to wrong people for this sort of work. Our world is a shambles!
