QUESTION 23 Poor now

Stress genuinely and try to avoid facetiousness at this point. Question 23 (a) explores what the informant understands by feeling "poor". If the word "poor" seems inappropriate use the alternative "very hard up".

QUESTION 24 Poverty

Stress the word "poverty". Do not explain what you think it means if you are asked. Seek from the informant his definition and write it in the box as clearly as you can.

QUESTION 25 Voting

Ask for those old enough to have voted in the last election (March 1965). We are not concerned who they voted for (although they will probably say) but would like to know if they are sufficiently involved to vote at all. Be careful to reassure people that this is confidential and as far as you are concerned non-voting is blameless—many people consider that voting is legally compulsory or morally obligatory and so voting figures are over-estimated. Try to get a clear recollection by fixing the incident (time of day, who they went with) if necessary. Stress National, not local elections.

QUESTION 26 Action on poverty

We are interested in what the informant thinks can be done. Give as full an answer as possible.

Please write in any additional notes.

This young couple have not been married very long. They were very kind and helpful and most interested in the survey. He as a solicitor was somewhat hesitant to divulge his partnership situation moneywise. He was genuinely puzzled re tax as he himself has paid 2 amounts of £300 but also the firm pays tax as well. He did not hesitate re overdraft but someone managed to evade my question of how much. He did say however Nat. Insurance & Insurance he would look out if I was asked for these in detail. I could easily go back if necessary. Ray gave me the phone number in case. Sorry about filling in III for 2nd I did not check before I began that he only worked 23 hrs a week. I also hope you can read my scribble on this questionnaire as it was during a severe thunderstorm one evening I saw the couple & I had visions of never getting home in the torrential downpour & flooding around us.
