QUESTION 23 Poor now

Stress genuinely and try to avoid facetiousness at this point. Question 23 (a) explores what the informant understands by feeling "poor". If the word "poor" seems inappropriate use the alternative "very hard up".

QUESTION 24 Poverty

Stress the word "poverty". Do not explain what you think it means if you are asked. Seek from the informant his definition and write it in the box as clearly as you can.

QUESTION 25 Voting

Ask for those old enough to have voted in the last election (March 1965). We are not concerned who they voted for (although they will probably say) but would like to know if they are sufficiently involved to vote at all. Be careful to reassure people that this is confidential and as far as you are concerned non-voting is blameless—many people consider that voting is legally compulsory or morally obligatory and so voting figures are over-estimated. Try to get a clear recollection by fixing the incident (time of day, who they went with) if necessary. Stress National, not local elections.

QUESTION 26 Action on poverty

We are interested in what the informant thinks can be done. Give as full an answer as possible.

Please write in any additional notes.

This family were most cooperative. They are moving to London next week and were patient enough to sit on the terrace & talk to me for nearly 5 hrs. I tried to get all the information I could to satisfy you. The son of 18 gives no money to the household as he has just bought a saved for a scooter. He has only just acquired it. The notes I have put on the 'a' sides of the questionnaire should well help as it will be difficult to check in on once he lives in Buckinghamshire. He explained why he had no ~~any~~ savings because as he pointed out he is always saving towards his 8% superannuation & the value of his property. He also talked of buying pictures. They had recently sold the house for £10,000 and had bought a larger new house in London & at least were negotiating for one. This would be a better investment again.
