QUESTION 23 Poor now

Stress genuinely and try to avoid facetiousness at this point. Question 23 (a) explores what the informant understands by feeling "poor". If the word "poor" seems inappropriate use the alternative "very hard up".

QUESTION 24 Poverty

Stress the word "poverty". Do not explain what you think it means if you are asked. Seek from the informant his definition and write it in the box as clearly as you can.

QUESTION 25 Voting

Ask for those old enough to have voted in the last election (March 1965). We are not concerned who they voted for (although they will probably say) but would like to know if they are sufficiently involved to vote at all. Be careful to reassure people that this is confidential and as far as you are concerned non-voting is blameless—many people consider that voting is legally compulsory or morally obligatory and so voting figures are over-estimated. Try to get a clear recollection by fixing the incident (time of day, who they went with) if necessary. Stress National, not local elections.

QUESTION 26 Action on poverty

We are interested in what the informant thinks can be done. Give as full an answer as possible.

Please write in any additional notes.

This household is obviously going through hard times. Personally I think the ~~present~~ present situation will become permanent and I feel that the left is becoming resigned to this unsatisfactory state of affairs because business prospects are not good and he is getting older. He is obviously being exploited but whether this is due to his wish to maintain a self-employed status must be seriously considered. There is no formal agreement between the two parties and so of course he has left himself wide open to trouble. I.S.M.

N.B. Wife doesn't work because partly lazy and partly ill.
