WRITE IN ANSWER

"Build houses for all the community and then let them pick & choose what they want to live in. People are prepared to pay week by week for their own houses and can afford it. But cut out the mortgage idea, have the most spread on a thirty year rent basis with no interest charges. This would be cheaper & better than council houses. People would like to own things eventually, but can't afford things like rates and deposits and charges for services etc. Doing things gives an incentive and incentives cut out a lot of poverty."
