Form of introduction

"My name is X. I'm from Essex/London University. We're preparing a report (writing a book) about standards of living in Britain today and how families manage. We think it's important for the Government and everyone else to know what the facts really are. We're hoping to talk to about 3,000 families throughout the country and I'd be very grateful if you could help us by answering some questions. All our information is, of course, strictly confidential."

(b) What would you describe as poverty?

WRITE IN ANSWER

where they have nothing at all no food no food nothing. Like the Braham people. I don't think there's real poverty in Britain if there's to their own fault. It's because they spend their money on drink instead of other things

(c) Would you say that if people are in poverty its mainly

X - their own fault?
Y - the Government's fault?
0 - the fault of their education?
1 - the fault of industry not providing the right jobs?
2 - anything else? (SPECIFY)
3 - a combination of (some of) these?
4 - none of these?

26. If there is poverty what do you think can be done about it?

nothing
DK

WRITE IN ANSWER

I think they should take the family allowances away from them & then give the children food & clothes through the schools or something like that because I don't think the children are getting it now in lots of cases the parents just draw the money & spend it on drink etc instead of in the home.
