"My name is X. I'm from Essex/London University. We're preparing a report (writing a book) about standards of living in Britain today and how families manage. We think it's important for the Government and everyone else to know what the facts really are. We're hoping to talk to about 3,000 families throughout the country and I'd be very grateful if you could help us by answering some questions. All our information is, of course, strictly confidential."

There are places to go to - when I were in a fix that lady from the N.S.P.C.C. she really helped me. These people are truly real ladies - they really help you. But look at how we have to manage £7.60 a week today - £6.20 for food at the shop - and one bag of coal - cost

QUESTION 23 Poor now

Stress genuinely and try to avoid facetiousness at this point. Question 23 (a) explores what the informant understands by feeling "poor". If the word "poor" seems inappropriate use the alternative "very hard up".

QUESTION 24 Poverty

Stress the word "poverty". Do not explain what you think it means if you are asked. Seek from the informant his definition and write it in the box as clearly as you can.

QUESTION 25 Voting

Ask for those old enough to have voted in the last election (March 1965). We are not concerned who they voted for (although they will probably say) but would like to know if they are sufficiently involved to vote at all. Be careful to reassure people that this is confidential and as far as you are concerned non-voting is blameless—many people consider that voting is legally compulsory or morally obligatory and so voting figures are over-estimated. Try to get a clear recollection by fixing the incident (time of day, who they went with) if necessary. Stress National, not local elections.

QUESTION 26 Action on poverty

We are interested in what the informant thinks can be done. Give as full an answer as possible.

Please write in any additional notes.

Q26
get 2. Supplementary heat so for rent and things like that. Asked for a supplementary grant for wife for shoes—but they said that the £3.10 was for rent & clothes for self, wife and child. Bayliss at school get a stip for £5 for a blazer & trousers for school—went to the Co-op—wouldn't even rent a skirt. These clothes have to last 9 months as well. It's a good school he goes to—It isn't having him shabby. If the wife doesn't get some shoes soon she won't be able to go out. Nat. will happen to the little one then.
