Form of introduction

"My name is X. I'm from Essex/London University. We're preparing a report (writing a book) about standards of living in Britain today and how families manage. We think it's important for the Government and everyone else to know what the facts really are. We're hoping to talk to about 3,000 families throughout the country and I'd be very grateful if you could help us by answering some questions. All our information is, of course, strictly confidential."

26. If there is poverty what do you think can be done about it?

WRITE IN ANSWER

We should look after us our country and not so much about other people. We could do with some second hand clothes never mind people abroad. There's enough money in this country for everyone to be happy if it was shared out properly - but it isn't. Some has far too much & some not enough.

QUESTION 23 Poor now

Stress genuinely and try to avoid facetiousness at this point. Question 23 (a) explores what the informant understands by feeling "poor". If the word "poor" seems inappropriate use the alternative "very hard up".

QUESTION 24 Poverty

Stress the word "poverty". Do not explain what you think it means if you are asked. Seek from the informant his definition and write it in the box as clearly as you can.

QUESTION 25 Voting

Ask for those old enough to have voted in the last election (March 1965). We are not concerned who they voted for (although they will probably say) but would like to know if they are sufficiently involved to vote at all. Be careful to reassure people that this is confidential and as far as you are concerned non-voting is blameless—many people consider that voting is legally compulsory or morally obligatory and so voting figures are over-estimated. Try to get a clear recollection by fixing the incident (time of day, who they went with) if necessary. Stress National, not local elections.

QUESTION 26 Action on poverty

We are interested in what the informant thinks can be done. Give as full an answer as possible.

Please write in any additional notes.

Q24
than us - old people. There's old Mrs. Mrs. Whittaker - her stomach is three quarters out - she can't sleep dead any time - they live on the old age pension and they have to pay for their old home - help. A bit ago the wife's legs were bad she was in pain she cried but she had to go to work. I tell you there's only one good man in this country - Powell - we fought for this country & now they're giving it away to foreigners while we are there in the work-heap. All these foreigners should be put in Buckingham Palace. Let her see that it's like to have all crammed up with foreigners.
