Form of introduction

"My name is X. I'm from Essex/London University. We're preparing a report (writing a book) about standards of living in Britain today and how families manage. We think it's important for the Government and everyone else to know what the facts really are. We're hoping to talk to about 3,000 families throughout the country and I'd be very grateful if you could help us by answering some questions. All our information is, of course, strictly confidential."

WRITE IN ANSWER

There's a lot could be done - as a rule its the man's fault because he won't work - I would make it that he would have to work or life would be very uncomfortable for him. He should get any money his wife & children should look after him. They should make steps to Bigger too. That the cause of a lot of it.
