QUESTION 23 Poor now

Stress genuinely and try to avoid facetiousness at this point. Question 23 (a) explores what the informant understands by feeling "poor". If the word "poor" seems inappropriate use the alternative "very hard up".

QUESTION 24 Poverty

Stress the word "poverty". Do not explain what you think it means if you are asked. Seek from the informant his definition and write it in the box as clearly as you can.

QUESTION 25 Voting

Ask for those old enough to have voted in the last election (March 1965). We are not concerned who they voted for (although they will probably say) but would like to know if they are sufficiently involved to vote at all. Be careful to reassure people that this is confidential and as far as you are concerned non-voting is blameless—many people consider that voting is legally compulsory or morally obligatory and so voting figures are over-estimated. Try to get a clear recollection by fixing the incident (time of day, who they went with) if necessary. Stress National, not local elections.

QUESTION 26 Action on poverty

We are interested in what the informant thinks can be done. Give as full an answer as possible.

Please write in any additional notes.

I can manage, she said, as long as ~~long as~~ nothing goes wrong. But if something like a repair crops up — or even needing new curtains — then you feel it. It's hard.
I'm enough to feed me & get coal & jog along but nothing else. I still got the car but it takes me two bus journeys to get to work
I wouldn't like to have to do it by bus in the winter. As long as nothing unexpected happens I'm alright.

(b) What would you describe as poverty?

WRITE IN ANSWER

In the old people they can't afford the little luxuries in life. Having no coal — it's a big item to have to pay for. I'd rather do without a meal than a fire.

(c) Would you say that if people are in poverty its mainly

WRITE IN ANSWER

I hardly know. For things such as big problems some have a problem one way some another. I'd say every case had to be judged up on its own merits.
