QUESTION 23 Poor now

Stress genuinely and try to avoid facetiousness at this point. Question 23 (a) explores what the informant understands by feeling "poor". If the word "poor" seems inappropriate use the alternative "very hard up".

QUESTION 24 Poverty

Stress the word "poverty". Do not explain what you think it means if you are asked. Seek from the informant his definition and write it in the box as clearly as you can.

QUESTION 25 Voting

Ask for those old enough to have voted in the last election (March 1965). We are not concerned who they voted for (although they will probably say) but would like to know if they are sufficiently involved to vote at all. Be careful to reassure people that this is confidential and as far as you are concerned non-voting is blameless—many people consider that voting is legally compulsory or morally obligatory and so voting figures are over-estimated. Try to get a clear recollection by fixing the incident (time of day, who they went with) if necessary. Stress National, not local elections.

QUESTION 26 Action on poverty

We are interested in what the informant thinks can be done. Give as full an answer as possible.

I don't think those should be poverty
- but with feeble
people there always need be

Please write in any additional notes.

By an extraordinary coincidence I met "informant" of this household while being entertained to luncheon at another address on my list. He was a fellow guest and related to the other family. I think it was due in some measure to their attitude & persuasion that I got so much co-operation from her.

is more in the cities - and it's mostly due to the conditions they live in - they don't get out of what there is a lot of poverty in other countries - in India - two families etc.
