 26. If there is poverty what do you think can be done about it? nothing DK

WRITE IN ANSWER

Better housing conditions & better welfare facilities. (P) More attention paid to these people - better education - so for elderly people it may be too late to be taught the way to live. Welfare people could help a lot. It all stems from the housing problem.

QUESTION 23 Poor now

Stress genuinely and try to avoid facetiousness at this point. Question 23 (a) explores what the informant understands by feeling "poor". If the word "poor" seems inappropriate use the alternative "very hard up".

QUESTION 24 Poverty

Stress the word "poverty". Do not explain what you think it means if you are asked. Seek from the informant his definition and write it in the box as clearly as you can.

QUESTION 25 Voting

Ask for those old enough to have voted in the last election (March 1965). We are not concerned who they voted for (although they will probably say) but would like to know if they are sufficiently involved to vote at all. Be careful to reassure people that this is confidential and as far as you are concerned non-voting is blameless—many people consider that voting is legally compulsory or morally obligatory and so voting figures are over-estimated. Try to get a clear recollection by fixing the incident (time of day, who they went with) if necessary. Stress National, not local elections.

QUESTION 26 Action on poverty

We are interested in what the informant thinks can be done. Give as full an answer as possible.

Please write in any additional notes.

There is obviously tension in this H/D between the husband (02) and the original informant plus her mother (03). In consequence, some parts of the Waive are completed by hearsay. I did not get a chance to talk to 03 — she refused to enter the room — despite my asking. Inf. became annoyed about questions on income — and it took considerable persuasion to get her to co-operate. She almost immediately after, left the room saying she had an appointment and hoped I could not keep her husband too long. She proposed to give no further co-operation.

The husband (02) was then called from the room ^{by 03} & sent on an errand (delivery of a priority telegram was claimed).

I feel that 02 did not feel free to talk lest his mother — in law should overhear from the next room.

Several times the children were sent to ask him to hurry up etc etc.

I think the tension is a permanent feature of the household & was not occasioned by ^{39a} the interview alone
