PS

QUESTION 23 Poor now

Stress genuinely and try to avoid facetiousness at this point. Question 23 (a) explores what the informant understands by feeling "poor". If the word "poor" seems inappropriate use the alternative "very hard up".

QUESTION 24 Poverty

Stress the word "poverty". Do not explain what you think it means if you are asked. Seek from the informant his definition and write it in the box as clearly as you can.

QUESTION 25 Voting

Ask for those old enough to have voted in the last election (March 1965). We are not concerned who they voted for (although they will probably say) but would like to know if they are sufficiently involved to vote at all. Be careful to reassure people that this is confidential and as far as you are concerned non-voting is blameless—many people consider that voting is legally compulsory or morally obligatory and so voting figures are over-estimated. Try to get a clear recollection by fixing the incident (time of day, who they went with) if necessary. Stress National, not local elections.

QUESTION 26 Action on poverty

We are interested in what the informant thinks can be done. Give as full an answer as possible.

Please write in any additional notes.

This informant was undoubtedly an individualist. She was intelligent & quite sensible about a number of things. But I had to lead her back continually to the questions being asked — because almost everything led to a story about the local council and their ^{bad} treatment of her — or malpractice of the medical profession in her particular case. There is probably some slight mental aberration — and undoubtedly she could not remember the answers to some of my questions. The one point she was certain of, was that (before last October when her O.A.P. was increased by 10%) she used to £8 per week to live on consistently everything.
