 26. If there is poverty what do you think can be done about it?

WRITE IN ANSWER

There could be much stricter control over the money that is being given for that. - especially family allowances. I've seen this myself - the money being wasted on booze, drinking & smoking, and not spent on the children.

QUESTION 23 Poor now

Stress genuinely and try to avoid facetiousness at this point. Question 23 (a) explores what the informant understands by feeling "poor". If the word "poor" seems inappropriate use the alternative "very hard up".

QUESTION 24 Poverty

Stress the word "poverty". Do not explain what you think it means if you are asked. Seek from the informant his definition and write it in the box as clearly as you can.

QUESTION 25 Voting

Ask for those old enough to have voted in the last election (March 1965). We are not concerned who they voted for (although they will probably say) but would like to know if they are sufficiently involved to vote at all. Be careful to reassure people that this is confidential and as far as you are concerned non-voting is blameless—many people consider that voting is legally compulsory or morally obligatory and so voting figures are over-estimated. Try to get a clear recollection by fixing the incident (time of day, who they went with) if necessary. Stress National, not local elections.

QUESTION 26 Action on poverty

We are interested in what the informant thinks can be done. Give as full an answer as possible.

03 is (probably) an epileptic and I judged it prudent to refrain from causing her distress by interviewing her. Her mother told me that she⁽⁰³⁾ had been very concerned about why I wished to talk to her personally — and it seemed obvious that she was worried about the kind of questions I would ask! Because of her "illness" her mother knows virtually all that is to be known about her — and I do not think I could have learned more from the girl herself. Originally I had planned to interview her (03) by herself the following day — but despite her mother's reassurances she remained concerned that I would have something to do with her condition (epilepsy!).
