nothing DK

WRITE IN ANSWER
INF I'd like the old age pension up to £5. That would be a help to get extra coal in for the winter
OR I don't know. (P) Some kind of industry round about here - for there is nothing

OR More jobs in areas such as ~~Spillways~~ there's no industry at all here - not much hope of any coming - not write this government. (P) That's the main thing

QUESTION 23 Poor now

Stress genuinely and try to avoid facetiousness at this point. Question 23 (a) explores what the informant understands by feeling "poor". If the word "poor" seems inappropriate use the alternative "very hard up".

QUESTION 24 Poverty

Stress the word "poverty". Do not explain what you think it means if you are asked. Seek from the informant his definition and write it in the box as clearly as you can.

QUESTION 25 Voting

Ask for those old enough to have voted in the last election (March 1965). We are not concerned who they voted for (although they will probably say) but would like to know if they are sufficiently involved to vote at all. Be careful to reassure people that this is confidential and as far as you are concerned non-voting is blameless—many people consider that voting is legally compulsory or morally obligatory and so voting figures are over-estimated. Try to get a clear recollection by fixing the incident (time of day, who they went with) if necessary. Stress National, not local elections.

QUESTION 26 Action on poverty

We are interested in what the informant thinks can be done. Give as full an answer as possible.

Please write in any additional notes.

While reporting my presence in the area to the police, & ~~asking~~ asking them for help in tracing my addresses, Lucas told that this household contained "a 'hard-do-well & alcoholic'", presumably referring to ~~me~~. He may be "weak", but he is also polite & gentle despite having been in prison — and I cannot help feeling that he is a victim of circumstances. The outlook for this household looks extremely bleak — much as the outlook for Gullonary itself is!

Please note that in this HD I was again uncertain who should have been asked these questions. Please delete the incorrect answers!
