 26. If there is poverty what do you think can be done about it?

WRITE IN ANSWER

I don't know! They are bashing out the grants and it doesn't seem to be making much difference. There is one thing that might help - if the grants were given to the mothers instead of the fathers - or if grants were given in kind (like vouchers to get things) in stead of in money. (P) You can't dictate to people what they must do - you can't tell them not to go to bingo - 3900 how to spend their money

QUESTION 23 Poor now

Stress genuinely and try to avoid facetiousness at this point. Question 23 (a) explores what the informant understands by feeling "poor". If the word "poor" seems inappropriate use the alternative "very hard up".

QUESTION 24 Poverty

Stress the word "poverty". Do not explain what you think it means if you are asked. Seek from the informant his definition and write it in the box as clearly as you can.

QUESTION 25 Voting

Ask for those old enough to have voted in the last election (March 1965). We are not concerned who they voted for (although they will probably say) but would like to know if they are sufficiently involved to vote at all. Be careful to reassure people that this is confidential and as far as you are concerned non-voting is blameless—many people consider that voting is legally compulsory or morally obligatory and so voting figures are over-estimated. Try to get a clear recollection by fixing the incident (time of day, who they went with) if necessary. Stress National, not local elections.

QUESTION 26 Action on poverty

We are interested in what the informant thinks can be done. Give as full an answer as possible.

Please write in any additional notes.

Excellent cooperation. But both were interviewed separately. It was quite obvious that one didn't want the other to hear anything said. The housewife would answer the simplest question about her father - first said "Yes" - better ask him. And when he refused me nothing!

They spend far too much money on cigarettes - on drink - and far too much on H.P.
